Labor Day

Labor Day in the United States is a public holiday celebrated on the first Monday in September. It honors the American labor movement and the contributions that workers have made to the strength, prosperity, laws and well-being of the country. It is the Monday of the long weekend known as Labor Day Weekend and it is considered the unofficial end of summer in the United States. The holiday is also a federal holiday.

Beginning in the late 19th century, as the trade union and labor movements grew, trade unionists proposed that a day be set aside to celebrate labor. "Labor Day" was promoted by the Central Labor Union and the Knights of Labor, which organized the first parade in New York City. In 1887, Oregon was the first state of the United States to make it an official public holiday. By the time it became an official federal holiday in 1894, thirty U.S. states officially celebrated Labor Day.

Canada's Labor Day is also celebrated on the first Monday of September. More than 80 countries celebrate International Workers' Day on May 1 – the ancient European holiday of May Day – and several countries have chosen their own dates for Labor Day.

While many labor to keep their families and themselves housed, feed and clothed, there are still too many of our brothers and sisters who struggle each day to support themselves and their families. While there are many agencies and organizations whose sole purpose is to aid and assist these individuals, it is also a call to us all as Catholic Christians to help whenever and wherever we can.

As we gather to celebrate this holiday, let us continue to be mindful as well as prayerful for those who do not have enough. Let us be mindful of the dignity and self-esteem that comes with earning a living and providing for those we love and care for as well as our continued aid and support to all of our brothers and sisters in need.

“Then they will answer and say, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and not minister to your needs?’ He will answer them, ‘Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.’”

(Matthew 25: 44-45)

Peace and Blessings
Deacon Joseph Yannotta

Building Corporation

Gentlemen:

We are at a critical time for the life and future of the Hall. As the Director of Marketing for the Building Corp, I am asking each and everyone of us to take an active role to insure the future of the Hall. Most of our renters are Social Media savvy. They do research before booking a hall for their event. What is critical is that we, as members all of the Building Corp, help our ongoing efforts to "spread the word" of the renovation and our great facility. The easiest and best way to do this is via Facebook. If you are not familiar with Facebook or seem challenged as to how to use it to our benefit, we will be conducting an upcoming seminar to walk through the steps and get you on board. It is easy and it's help is quite necessary for the sustainability of the Hall.

Stay tuned for more and thanks.

Truly Priceless Garage Sale

The St. James Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul and the St. James Respect Life Ministry are co-sponsoring the 13th Annual "Truly Priceless Garage Sale" for Life Saving Work and Disaster Relief which will be held on Saturday, September 9, 2017.

The idea is to benefit people who have excess goods, people who need goods, and those who are affected by disaster of any kind. Unlike ordinary garage sales, the items are not priced. Instead, donations are accepted for the Knights of Columbus Fr. Michael J. McGivney Center for Hope and Healing, Catholic Charities, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, the Women's Center, and the Pro Life Action League. Almost $25,000 has been collected in the first twelve years for these worthy causes.

Council Communications

For all members who wish to understand how the council communications currently work. Below are listed various methods we are currently using and the intended use for each method.

The weekly blast is to be used as a reminder for events coming up in the next couple of weeks. It can also be used to announce events missed at our business meeting. Since this blast only comes out on Wednesdays should not be used to announce the passing a brother knight or family member.

Items for the blast should not be more than 1-2 paragraphs.

Articles should have something to do with our Council, Assembly or local Parishes.

Articles should not be about outside groups or events that do not concern our council.

Pictures are allowed and should be in J-peg or JPG format.

Please submit all requests for the weekly blast by Sunday evenings. Copy the message to the following people.
